WE PREP. WE PLAN. WE RESOLVE

Tax Consultation Rates

I offer a free 30-minute consultation. Any additional time beyond that is billed at $150/hour. My consultation fee reflects the time I invest in staying current on tax law and researching details to give you accurate, tailored guidance.

Common reasons you may want a consultation include:

- Choosing the right business structure (LLC vs. S-corp, etc.)
- Planning a move to a different country and understanding the tax impact
- Owing the IRS and exploring whether you qualify for tax relief options

If you file a return with me, once your return is complete I also include a 30-minute review session to walk you through your taxes and answer any questions you may have.

Includes: multi-entity strategy review, projection and estimate plan, entity-structure guidance, owner-pay strategy considerations (where applicable), retirement/tax optimization planning, and a detailed year-round roadmap.

Ongoing Advisory

Quarterly Tax Advice — $500 per session

Stay ahead of your taxes with a proactive check-in every quarter. In this session, we review your year-to-date income, expenses, and major changes (new job, side hustle, business growth, life events), then adjust your tax strategy so you're not surprised at filing time. You'll leave with clear next steps, estimated tax/payment guidance (if needed), and a short action list to keep you compliant and on track. Best for: self-employed individuals, side hustlers, and small business owners who want ongoing guidance without a monthly retainer.

Tax Resolution Services

As an Enrolled Agent, I'm authorized to represent you directly before the IRS, often at a fraction of the cost of hiring an attorney. Because every tax situation is unique, we evaluate each case individually and only recommend relief options we believe have a realistic chance of success. Below are starting prices for common tax resolution services:

Offer in Compromise (OIC) — $2000

An Offer in Compromise is a formal request to settle your tax debt for less than the full amount owed based on your income, expenses, and assets. If accepted, the IRS agrees to treat the reduced amount as payment in full.

IRS First-Time Penalty Abatement (FTA) — $500 (Guarantee Service)

First-Time Abatement is a request to remove certain IRS penalties if you have a clean compliance history (generally, the last three years). It does not remove the underlying tax or interest, but it can significantly reduce what you owe.

Partial-Pay Installment Agreement (PPIA) — $1,000

A Partial-Pay Installment Agreement sets up a monthly payment the IRS agrees to accept even if it won't pay the balance in full before the collection statute ends. The IRS reviews your finances periodically, and your payment can increase if your income or assets change.

Note:

These are options you can pursue on your own—there's nothing "special" or secret about them. Where my value comes in is handling IRS communication, preparing the paperwork accurately, and doing the meticulous calculations needed to support the strongest possible case based on the facts of your situation.

Monthly Bookkeeping

Pricing is based on your monthly transaction volume. My minimum rate is $250/month, which includes tracking your transactions and reconciling your accounts and receipts.
